DESCRIPTION

Started from a local demand for specific services and built upon a reputation for supplying a quality and reliable service, this commercial janitorial company has been serving its community for about a decade. Having nimble operational philosophy, the company provides a diverse service offering including commercial janitorial, one-time construction clean-up services, floor finishing, window washing, duct cleaning, and cleaning inspection services.

A wonderful opportunity exists for an individual or couple with an entrepreneurial spirit to take over this successful company servicing a vibrant Northern BC community and to seek out new revenue streams/locations to grow the business. Similarly, this business might be of interest to other janitorial companies seeking a strategic or synergistic add-on to their current offering.
